

South Dakota SNA

.....

Ekk... it is almost the end of October!

This is SDSNA's monthly newsletter to keep YOU informed about what we are doing at the local level. This is also a way for us to show off how amazing our local chapters are by sharing information about their fun ideas, community outreach, etc.

Nursing Pride

by SDSU Brookings Chapter SNA

SDSU nursing students participated in SDSU's Hobo Day Parade. They did a fantastic job demonstrating how fun the nursing program is and we know for a fact that younger kids were loving their float and looking up to EACH AND EVERY ONE OF THEM! We know that you all made a lasting impression in Brookings, SD. Keep up the good work!

Mark your calendars!

The SD SNA Convention will be here before we know it! Mark your calendars now for March 21st, 2020! It will be hosted by SDSU and take place in Brookings. More information will be coming soon about registration!

Tie Blankets

by Augustana University's SNA

Augie nursing students put together tie blankets this month. They are donating them to individuals who are in need at the Ronald McDonald House in Sioux Falls. Great way to help out those in your community students!

Pumpkin Painting and Halloween Cards

by SDSU Brookings Chapter SNA

SNA students in Brookings decorated pumpkins and made Halloween cards at their meeting this month. The cards will be delivered to a nursing home in Brookings to brighten the day of the residents!

SNA Students: Please don't forget to take pictures at your next SNA activities and send them our way! We want to see what is going on in our nursing organization all over the state! (Pictures can be emailed to mya.hanisch@usiouxfalls.edu)
